An awards presentation honoring the officer chosen will be held at the Annual LACP Conference. The winner will be notified in June so they can make arrangements to attend.

Louisiana Association of Chiefs Of Police Awards Program 2017

As you know, recognition of a job well done is very important. Please, as a chief, take time to recognize your “top gun!” We appreciate the services that our law enforcement officers render every day in the performance of their dangerous duties. Why not let the LACP, recognize the law enforcement officers who are out there in the trenches every day battling the war on traffic enforcement, violent crimes, and drugs.

Please prepare your nomination for this prestigious award and mail it in to the LACP office. All nominations must be post marked no later than March 10, 2017.

Unfortunately, we cannot recognize each and every law enforcement officer. This LACP award is our way of extending to the local law enforcement officers the honor and praise they so richly deserve.
